BANDITS ROB TRAIN OF $59,725

Masked Bandits Enter Express Car, Overpower Messenger And Escape With Large Sum

Robbery Not Discovered For Half Hour—Robbery in Georgia.

(By Associated Press)

Augusta, Ga., June 30.—An express car on the Charleston & West Carolina Railroad was reported robbed near here early today by bandits, who gagged and bound an express messenger and an armed guard and made away with $59,725, constituting the pay roll for the Marines at the Paris Island, S. C., station.

The money had been expressed under guard from Atlanta and was transferred here to the train, which left Augusta at 5:15 a. m.

When a few miles out of the city in the Savannah River bottom, it is claimed, the hold-up men entered the express car, overpowered the messenger and armed guard and then threw the safe containing the money out of the door.

The robbery was not discovered until about 30 minutes later, after the train had crossed to the South Carolina side of the river. One of the train crew passed through the car and found the expressman and the guard bound and gagged. Officers are scouring the river swamps.

(By Associated Press)

Miami, Fla., June 30.—Three hundred members of the American Legion called out by Mayor Smith prevented a threatened race riot growing out of the hurling of a bomb into a negro dwelling last night from an automobile said to have been occupied by white men.

The explosion of the bomb resulted in no casualties, but reports that the negroes who gathered in the streets by the hundreds were arming themselves caused Mayor Smith to call on the Legion members who patrolled the streets throughout the night.

The presidential electors at large elected were W. H. Boyd, Cleveland, and L. J. Tabor, Barnesville, Master of the State Grange.

"SLIGHTLY MOIST" PLANK PREPARED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Regard For "Personal Liberty" Carried in Plank to be Submitted to Convention.

PLANK ON LEAGUE AS WILSON WANTS IT

Bryan Says He Will Make Fight On Floor Against Wet Provisions.

Administration Leaders Claim Bryan Cannot Break Their Line-Up.

(By Associated Press)

San Francisco, June 30.—According to administration chiefs the sub-committee of nine adopting the Democratic platform has practically agreed on a prohibition plank which is described as "slightly moist" and as being in "support of the constitutional amendment" but with declarations for personal liberty and against "vexatious interferences."

A league of nations plank, the same administration chiefs said, has been agreed upon "just as Woodrow Wilson wants it," without the dotting of an I or the crossing of a T.

As forecast, it follows almost identically the line of the Virginia platform previously approved by President Wilson.

A careful count of the full committee and a survey of the convention, the chiefs said, made them confident that W. J. Bryan could not get his prohibition plank into the platform.

The agreement was in such form, they said, that it was not improbable that their work would be laid before the full committee on resolutions late this afternoon.

BRYAN WILL MAKE FIGHT ON PLATFORM

(By Associated Press)

San Francisco, June 30.—W. J. Bryan, in a fighting mood today expressed his dissatisfaction with the wet and dry situation before the resolutions committee and said that he expected to fight in the convention "and hoped to gain distinction as a reviser of platforms."

(By Associated Press)

Cedar Point, Ohio, June 30.—A record attendance was here today for the opening of the annual meeting of the Ohio Grain Dealers' Association.

Many farmers from over the state were present to take part in conferences between grain producers and distributors.

The wheat crop of Ohio is soon to be harvested, and there are said to be complaints already from farmers and elevator men that box cars will be scarce.

Efforts will be made to obtain sufficient freight cars to move the crop to market.

Outbursts of Applause Greet Presentation of Favorite Sons For Presidential Honors

FIGHT ON THE FLOOR SEEN BY MANY LEADERS

Prohibition Question and League Of Nations Plank to Form Bone of Contention.

Balloting is Expected Late On Thursday or Friday.

(By Associated Press)

San Francisco, June 30.—Candidates for presidential honors were being placed in nomination at today's session of the Democratic National Convention.

While the committeemen struggled behind closed doors, attempting to draft a platform acceptable to all elements in the party, the convention, under a rule approved yesterday, saved time by having the nominating speeches made in advance of the adoption of the declaration of principles.

Beginning before noon, oratory held forth and was expected to continue throughout the day, interrupted only by noisy demonstrations as the names of favorite candidates were placed before the delegates.

With all the candidates formally in nomination, the convention will await the report of the Platform Committee before proceeding "to pick the nominee. Balloting may not begin until late Thursday or Friday.

The platform drafters plan to work continuously until the document is completed. Laboring until nearly two o'clock this morning, the sub-committee resumed its task before 10 o'clock and stopped only long enough to report progress to the full membership of the committee.

How much longer the subcommittee will take to finish its part of the work, and how much time the full committee will consume in considering the report, no one will venture to predict.

Planks defining the Democratic party's attitude on the league of nations, and the prohibition question, two of the prominent issues before the subcommittee, have not been finally decided upon, though it is said an agreement is not far off on the league declaration.

Regardless of the action taken by the subcommittee, members repeated that there is sure to be a fight in the full committee over both questions, and that the losers will carry an appeal to the convention for final decision.

Substantial agreement, it was said, has been reached on many of the minor issues proposed for incorporation in the platform.

A great crowd came to the convention hall today, prepared for a day of intense excitement.

Meanwhile the crossings continue to be dreaded by every one who is compelled to cross them in a vehicle.

CITIZENS' UNION IS SCRUTINIZED

New York, May 12.—An investigation of the "one big union of citizens" idea and its feasibility in protecting American communities from possible fuel or food famines during strikes is now underway by 10 members of the New York State Chamber of Commerce recently appointed by the president of the organization as a "Committee on Public Welfare."

Revolutionary labor upheavals and strikes designed as "outlaw" walk-outs by union officials and the employment of volunteer Americans in keeping with the channels of communication and transportation open, are the objects, it is said, of the Chamber's present inquiry. The Chamber for several weeks has been listing and classifying volunteers who, with no antagonism toward unions or partisan interest in labor quarrels, obligate themselves to operate motor trucks or during any other work necessary to keep the nation's commercial arteries open in time of stress. To prevent the "tying up and throttling of whole communities," the Committee has received hundreds of responses to blank questionnaires specifying the ability and equipment of the various volunteers. Their occupation, home addresses and telephone numbers together with other similar data are in possession of the Committee which, in time of crisis, may be utilized.

MUST SHOW LIGHTS OR PAY A FINE

The edict has gone forth that that portion of the traffic ordinance to say nothing of state law, making it necessary to display lights on motor vehicles while running after dark will be enforced to the letter in this city, and already several persons have been cited to appear before Mayor Dahl and see if they could give satisfactory explanation of their offense before paying a fine.

Complaint has been made of excessive speeding on some of the main residence streets of the city, and this also will be given attention.

LYNCHBURG LIQUOR MUST PAY TAXES

Back taxes aggregating some $30,000 must be paid by owners of 13,000 barrels of whiskey contained in the warehouses of the Lynchburg Distillery at Lynchburg, Highland county.

The taxes date back to 1915 and when the taxes are collected the little town will have $8,670 as its portion.

Some question has been raised as to who owns the whiskey and attorneys for Highland county are now endeavoring to fix the ownership and collect the taxes and penalties provided for back taxes.

MEMOIR

Sarah Jane Young was the daughter of Lorenzo and Elizabeth Young and was born in Xenia, Ohio, Greene County, February 22, 1847 and answered the eternal summons June 25, 1920, at the age of 78 years.

She was united in marriage to Abner Johnson, Sept. 22, 1910, which companionship has been congenial and happy. Besides her husband, she leaves three step-children, Mrs. C. A. Teeters, Mrs. E. C. Vandervort and Mr. Lyn Johnson and the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. Julia Eyer, Mrs. Margery Cook, Miss Lucy Young, Clark and Lewis.

Mrs. Johnson has been in failing health the past year. She has been seriously ill for the past nine weeks but passed away peacefully as if going to sleep.

While not identified with any church she had firm convictions of right and wrong. The last few weeks she often referred to the future and accepted Christ as her Saviour. She often called for prayer and on one occasion when one of the family recited the 23rd Psalm, she frequently interrupted to comment on the comfort of having Jesus as her Shepherd as she walked in the shadow of death. She remarked that one thought more seriously of these things as they neared the end of life and expressed a belief and hope of the future and was resigned and anxious to go.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kind assistance and sympathy in our recent bereavement.

Cummings' Keynote Speech

The temporary chairman, Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut, of the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco, delivered the keynote of the party—he sounded the master note to which all party speakers during the campaign must harmonize their oratorical tunes.

It was above the average as a keynote speech and those speeches are always the most thrilling, the most sensational and the most inspiring of the campaign—or are supposed to be. They are framed and delivered for the purpose of arousing the assembled delegates and other auditors to action—a sort of a trumpet call to action. The keynote speech is the stimulate for the fighters. It is an exparte arraignment of the other fellows and the “key-note,” free from any danger of contradiction, is at liberty to go just as far as he likes and state the case of his party just as forcibly as he likes. In the convention there is no one to say nay.

Like the keynote speech of Senator Lodge, delivered at Chicago, that of Chairman Cummings was a ringing arraignment of the political opponents. It perhaps served better in arousing enthusiasm than did Senator Lodge's speech. It was as full of invective but it was more impartial and directed against a group rather than against one individual and for that reason was less jarring on the nerves of those who refuse to believe all political opponents are dishonest and wholly untrustworthy.

A Good Old Sport

In a quiet section of Vermont in the peace of its everlasting hills “Parson” Davies, one of the last of that sporting fraternity which thirty years ago held the attention of the world, breathed his last. Having reached the allotted limit of life “Parson” Davies took the final count from a champion never yet defeated.

Davies piloted Peter Jackson to the very pinnacle of pugilistic fame. It was under his tutelage that Jim Hall attained the summit only to fall to the lowest round of fistiana's ladder before “Lanky Bob” Fitzsimmons. John L. Sullivan, the greatest of them all, perhaps, became under Davies' management, the popular Boston Boy of the stage. A score of lesser lights among the sports owe their fame to the Irish gentleman who has just been counted out for all time.

Davies was one of the square sports who feared neither the pugilists, the wrestlers nor the public when honesty called for action unpopular for the moment. Sullivan, Fitzsimmons, Hall, Gans, Gotch, Lewis and Siler have all passed from the stage which thirty years ago held the very center of public attention. Davies is about the last one of the old crowd to take the count. He had hosts of friends and deserved them all, but the pine torch, the glaring lamps and the cheering crowds were absent from the ringside when “Parson” Davies met his Conqueror and took the count.

His death is a reminder of other days and other customs that have passed by forever.

FISHIN' PHILOSOPHY

Sleepin' on a river bank
An' bait in the cup;
Fish comes tuggin' at the line—
Wakes a feller up!

Just when he's a-dreamin'
Of gardens of delight,
“Nod,” goes the fishin' pole—
Fish begin to bite.

Life's so contrary—
That's the way it goes;
How we're goin' to pull through
Lord only knows!

KEYNOTE SPEECH MAKES CUMMINGS POSSIBLE NOMINEE AS COMPROMISE

Opening Scenes in Great Convention — Humorous And Serious — Graphically Portrayed.

Delegates Assembled Make Clear Intention to Stand By Wilson.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

San Francisco, Cal., June 29.—The event of the opening day was Chairman Cummings' speech. That speech was in all respects adequate to the occasion. If later on a jam should develop here; if it should come about that President Wilson is called upon to take a hand in naming the Presidential candidate and if he wants primarily a candidate who wholeheartedly believes in him and in his works and the League of Nations, if regardless of other qualifications he seeks a man who has both the wish and the capacity to again create in the country the emotion that it once had about the league of nations, he could not do better, judged by what happened today, than choose Mr. Cummings.

The whole of the opening session was quite reasonably successful from the beginning. It was very much keyed to President Wilson and the League of Nations. As soon as the meeting was called to order, the band struck up the “Star Spangled Banner.” Right at the opening bars, an American flag, probably the largest ever used indoors, and slowly dropped across the entire width of the hall, back of the chairman and in the eyes of the delegates and the audience. A spotlight played on the center of flag, and then as the huge bunting was drawn back toward the ceiling, the spotlight was found resting on a painting of Wilson that had been placed behind the flag. This, of course, was a signal for a demonstration. The strict fact that the demonstration did not get under way very spontaneously. It was stimulated by the band playing “Over There,” “The Long, Long Trail” and other euphonic accelerations of emotion also many members of the National Committee, seated on a platform, did what they could by leading the audience, notably a woman member from Oklahoma who made use of a white handkerchief to call the audience up. But it seemed to your correspondent that however the audience may have cheered, the bulk of the delegates remained unresponsive. It was a long time before there began that march of the delegates led by their state standards which is a feature of all national conventions. In the New York delegation there was a dispute among the delegates as to whether the standard should be raised or whether the New York delegates should join the procession at all. Mr. Franklin Roosevelt led the effort to thus honor Wilson, against the physical restraint of some of his fellow delegates.

A young man, with a musically resonant voice, Mr. Bruce Kremer, of Montana, becomingly cutaway-coated and otherwise good looking in a dark eyed movie sort of way, pounded the gavel until he got order. Then he said that “The delegates, the alternates and the audience will refrain from smoking,” a gesture of deference to the ladies, which is part of a most obvious intention of the Democratic management, expressed not merely in small acts of courtesy, but more conspicuously in matters of principal.

The women have been given many times as much by this convention as the Republicans at Chicago grudgingly conceded to feminine demands. And the Democrats have taken the lead in giving it, have done handsomely and generously.

Then the ornate young man, after introducing the priest who offered prayer, made a speech himself. There was not much to it. There was a lot about “Peace, prosperity and world leadership.” The Republican party “is a vicious, rabid old scold.” It is “a party of destruction.” The Democratic party, on the other hand, “is almost as the country itself.” But it isn't much use to quote more from that speech. It has hardly enough thought to engage the intellect; and the speaker was a little too perfectly dressed and perfectly combed, and altogether too shiny on the surface, to give the impression of an ingratiating personality, or otherwise to stimulate the audience to real emotion. One thing he did do. He fired the gun at the start-off and fired it strongly and emphatically. In his closing sentences he said the Democratic party would “unflinchingly meet the world's demand for peace,” and otherwise gave the idea that the convention would take the field aggressively in behalf of the League of Nations. The ringing character of the declaration brought an amount of applause that friends of the League must take as a good omen.

At the end of young Mr. Kremer's speech, the band, for no apparent reason, played a few bars of “Dixie.” Then there was a reading of the call, and the roll of temporary officers recommended. It all went through smoothly. Fred Lynch, of Minnesota moved the adoption of the recommendations, and Chairman Cummings came to the platform escorted by Senator Phelan, of California, Gov. Smith, of New York, and Miss Helen Grenfell, of Colorado. Now we shall have the keynote speech. If there is either thought or oratory or conviction or definiteness of program in the Democratic party, we ought to learn it now.

Mr. Cummings was rather long in getting warmed up, and by the same token, the applause was rather long in getting under way. The chairman's first gesture came at the first point where he touched the thing his heart is in, the League of Nations. He became very earnest when he said of the Republican platform, “the oppressed peoples of the earth will look to it in vain. It contains no message of hope for Ireland, no word of mercy for Armenia, and it conceals a sword for Mexico. It contains no thought, no purpose which can give impulse or thrill to those who hope to make the world a safer and happier place to live.” At this proclamation of what was to be the burden of the speech, the League of Nations, there was moving applause.

The next and much more conspicuous burst of applause helped in this case by the band falling back on dependable “Dixie,” came when the speaker catalogued the achievements of the war. He praised all material things done under difficulty, the transporting of the troops to Europe, the selective draft, the appointment of Pershing and the like. He pictured the American troops at Chateau Thierry, and then led up to an emotional affirmation that this was done under “the inspired and incomparable leadership of Woodrow Wilson.” This time, as it all times when Mr. Cummings mentioned Wilson, he showed the strong feelings that he has for Wilson, and he successfully infected the crowd with his own emotion.

HAD TO BE HELPED INTO HIS CLOTHES

Now Feels Better Than In Twenty-Five Years and is Brimful of New Life and Energy

“Yes, sir, I was so badly crippled up I could not do a lick of work at the time I began taking Tanlac, but now I have been built up to where I am feeling better than I have for twenty years,” said Mathis Dolfinger, 1131 Yates St., Toledo, Ohio. Mr. Dolfinger is a machinist and for the past fourteen years has been employed by the Baker Bros. Machine Works and Foundry.

“My wife tells me I am looking years younger and my friends and neighbors are all congratulating me on my recovery. I was in a bad fix before I got hold of Tanlac and had been for nearly five years. Why, I had hardly seen a well day during all that time. I had indigestion so bad I hated to go to the table, for it seemed like every bite I ate soured and formed into a hard lump in my stomach. The cramps in my stomach were awful and at times I became so nauseated I had to lie down right where I happened to be until I could recover. I had sharp pains in my chest and would bloat up with gas so tight that I felt miserable. I had rheumatism in my arms and shoulders and my muscles were so stiff and sore I was in pain nearly every time I moved. Finally I got so bad off I could not get my arm above my shoulders and I had to have somebody help me put on my coat. In fact, I was almost helpless and had to quit altogether. My complexion turned yellow and I was as weak as a rag.

That was my condition when I began taking Tanlac on the advice of a friend, and now four bottles have done for me what other medicines failed to do. I am brimful of life and energy and am now back at work feeling like my old self again. As for my appetite, I can hardly satisfy it and I digest everything I eat without any bad effects. The rheumatism has disappeared and I have as good use as ever of my arms and hands. My complexion has all cleared up and I am sleeping fine every night. Tanlac is a great medicine and I can heartily recommend it.”

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Mil edgeville, E. L. Ford Sons, Leo Orman, Selden. — Advt.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Frank C. Parrett and Mrs. Elsie Daugherty added to society's unusual gay summer season two exceptionally beautiful and charming Bridge parties Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons.

Mrs. Parrett's lovely home with a variety of both hot house and garden flowers in artistic arrangement, made a perfect frame for handsomely gowned matrons and maids who delightfully whiled away the hours in the popular game. Especially effective was a large basket of My Maryland roses in the living room, and in the dining room tall vases of flame gladioli, while sweet pea bowls were filled with wonderful bloom.

Exquisite nosegays were the trophies of the game Mrs. Otto Tritscheller, of Chillicothe, the winner on Tuesday.

Bringing to a close the Bridge session an elaborate collation was served, all the appointments of the menu admirably carried out, and crystal baskets of pink roses, the handles tied with bows of pink maline added a pretty color note to the tables.

The hostesses headed an attractive receiving line. Mrs. Parrett, charming and chic as always, wore a smart toilette of white tricollette, with over blouse of georgette, embroidered in wool in shades of yellow.

Mrs. Daugherty was lovely in white net, the ruffles of the skirt edged with organdie and the bodice organdie trimmed, finished with sash of apricot messaline and cluster of French flowers in the same shade.

With them were Mrs. Parrett's sister, Mrs. H. E. Cherrington, of Columbus, piquant in white tricollette over blouse, embroidered in blue, with French blue satin skirt; Mrs. Chaney Burnham, of Columbus, wearing a very elaborate gown of cream macerone lace, with becoming lingerie hat of apple green georgette, and Mrs. Otto Tritscheller of Chillicothe, whose engaging personality always retains the interest of large circle of friends in her former home town, was looking extremely well in dark blue and white polka dot swiss, with inserts of white lace.

Mrs. Albert S. Glascock, of Cincinnati and Mrs. H. Renick Boggs, assisting in the hospitalities.

Twenty tables were at play in the two afternoons.

Out of town guests on Tuesday in addition to those receiving and assisting were Mrs. Roy O. Young, of Asheville, N. C., Mrs. William W. DEVELOPMENTS STOP WHILE FEDERAL MEN PREPARE FOR HUNT

No further developments have come out of the seizure of eighty-five gallons of what the authorities believe to be corn whiskey in the making on the Harry Karney farm on the McCoy road Monday evening. It is announced by Sheriff N. B. Hall, who engineered the hunt.

The whole affair has been turned over to the Federal authorities and it will probably be several days before definite results occur. It has been conclusively determined, it is stated by the sheriff and deputy, that the mixture is an alcoholic beverage of some description in the making and has all the appearances of corn whiskey.

No affidavits have been filed at the present time except the one against Karney, and the warrant has not been served but has been held up pending investigation.

A jar of the concoction has been on display at the sheriff's office and has been pronounced something other than "hog feed" by every one inspecting it.

COUNTY AND CITY SCHOOLS TO HOLD UNION SESSION

Dates Are Announced For Big Five-day Annual Teachers' Institute in the High School Building.

County Superintendents Will Meet Here Friday to Complete Plans For Institute Under Chautauqua Plan.

Teachers of the public schools of this city and the teachers of the rural and village schools will meet in union session at the Annual Teachers' Institute in this city at Washington high school, August 30, 31 and September 1, 2, 3.

The Institute this year will be held under the Chautauqua plan with speakers appearing here on the circuit composed of five counties, Ross, Highland, Clinton, Greene and Fayette. The plan was adopted by the county school superintendents of these five counties last winter and it is thought that such a program will be much more advantageous than such a program will be more advantageous than the manner in which former Institutes were held.

Speakers appearing here will include Charles A. Keith of Richmond, Ky.; Herbert Martin, of Des Moines, Iowa; Dr. James Matheny, of Indianapolis, Ind.; J. Adams Puffer, of Boston, Mass.; and W. A. McChesney, of Cedarville, Ohio.

To complete plans for the five county arrangement the school superintendents consult with Superintendent O. S. Nelson in this city Friday. The men who will meet are Supt. W. H. Vance, of Highland county; Supt. A. W. Whetstone, of Ross county; Supt. Harry Hodson, of Clinton county; Supt. H. S. Reynolds, of Greene county.

A program for the five day Institute is under construction. The Institute will be held under the jurisdiction of the county board of education.

FEAR THOU NOT: for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.—Isaiah 41: 10.

FARM BUREAU MEETING IS ON

Several hundred farmers, representing every section of Fayette county, met in Memorial Hall Wednesday afternoon to perfect plans for the year for the Fayette County Farm Bureau and to elect officers.

The men went into session at two o'clock and the entire afternoon was to be taken up with the projections of the organization. Features brought out during the meeting were success of the drive for members for the Farm Bureau and the phenomenal growth of the organization during the last few weeks.

SHORT SERVICES HELD MRS. ABNER JOHNSON

Short funeral services were held at the Johnson home on Columbus avenue Monday morning over all that was mortal of Mrs. Abner Johnson, Rev. K. B. Alexander officiating. The hymns "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer My God to Thee" were read by the minister, who made a short talk.

The flowers were beautiful, the last tribute of the family.

Messrs. Frank M. Kennedy, David S. Craig, Scott Hopkins and Harley Flee acted as pallbearers.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Teeters, daughter, Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Flee, Raymond Flee, Mrs. O. S. Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vandervoort, of Carthage, Mo., with Mr. Johnson, the husband, accompanied the body to Xenia for burial.

A number of former friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Johnson were in waiting at the cemetery. Rev. Bennett conducted the committal services.

SENATOR JAMES A. REED of Missouri hates the league of nations—more than poison and is in San Francisco to prevent if he can the incorporation of a league of nations plank in the Democratic platform.

AKRON DIRIGIBLES DREW ATTENTION OPEN AIR STATION

Akron, Ohio, June 29.—Attention will be focused upon Akron as the leading port in the United States for lighter-than-air craft when the Wingfoot Lake Air Station near Akron will be formally opened for public flight in "pony blimps" and kite balloons on July 10 and 11.

Wingfoot Lake Field, said to be the largest privately owned balloon station in the United States, has been equipped with one of the largest type pony blimps, free spherical balloons, and a kite or captive balloon such as is used in the United States army for observation purposes. These are in charge of veteran pilots, most of whom trained naval flying students during the war.

The purpose of the Goodyear Rubber company in throwing open the field on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays during the year is to give the public an opportunity to learn the delight and safety of aerial travel in lighter than air craft. The plan is to educate the public in regard to transportation of the future.

For those who wish to experience swift travel in the air, the three passenger pony blimp will undoubtedly prove popular as it has a speed of about 40 miles an hour.

Spherical balloons with motive power will carry passengers on cross-country flights. Motor cars will follow the balloons so that the passengers may return to the starting point by motor, if they desire. Those who have made flights in these balloons have termed it the "peer of all sports."

WATSON ARRAIGNS ADMINISTRATION AT STATE RALLY

(By Associated Press.)

AND the 1900 Cataract Washer does the rest. Out come the clothes, in all their snowy freshness!

You can wash everything—from frilly waists and fluffy underwear to heavy blankets or table linens. There are no parts in the tub to rub against the clothes and cause wear and tear. And there are no heavy cylinders to lift out and clean when the wash is finished.

SOVIETS TRIED TO GIVE MOSCOW A PROSPEROUS LOOK

London, (By Mail)—An attempt to make Moscow look a busy and prosperous city during the visit to that city of the English Labor delegates is told by the Lettish Information Bureau, whose press bureau at Riga has a special correspondent attached to the peace delegation in Moscow.

"The various institutions in Soviet Russia had for a long time been busy in preparations for the reception of the English labor delegates in order to show to them Russia in attractive colors," says the correspondent. In Petrograd, where as a rule almost no people are to be seen on the streets, all the officials were ordered to take part in the reception. Theatrical representations and grandiose banquets were organized with the participation of actresses from the Marinski and Alexandrovski theatres. The delegates were taken to Moscow in a special train, accompanied by Tcherkess soldiers in bright uniforms.

In Moscow, the day before the arrival of the English delegates, all the papers published strict orders issued by the military and civil commissaries, setting out what everybody had to do and how to behave. On May 17 the tramway service in the city was suspended, all the cars being taken to the neighborhood of the Nikolaevski station, where gaily decorated, they moved to and fro, trying to convey to the visitors the idea of busy traffic.

In the station all motor cars from Moscow were mobilized even the highest commissaries having to walk. On May 18 a parade was organized but no private persons were allowed to be present. This is the way the Bolsheviks organized the tragic-comedy of the communistic paradise in order to deceive the English visitors as to the real state of Soviet Russia.

HOKE SMITH, one time governor of Georgia and now senator from that state, would like to be president but realizes that he lives too far south to seriously covet the honor.

LOSE HEAVILY IN INVESTMENTS

A local man who believes he is in close touch with conditions in Fayette county, announces that during the past few years Fayette countians, by reason of investing in questionable concerns, have lost several hundred thousands of dollars.

The man declares that in all probability the same condition exists in surrounding counties, and that the investors probably will never receive one cent return from their investments.

Oil and other uncertain stocks have formed the basis of the bad investments.

It is also stated that while many persons have lost heavily by reason of bad investment in stocks of which they know nothing, that many others have reaped liberal interest from their investments and are fully satisfied, having made careful inquiry before venturing to place their savings.

ASK MINISTERS TO URGE THRIFT ON NATAL DAY

Inasmuch as the Fourth of July falls upon Sunday Ohio ministers have been asked by the Ohio War Savings Committee, to call especial attention to the country's natal day and the necessity for Thrift if the ideals set forth in 1776 are to be maintained.

A statement just issued to the clergy of Ohio by the War Savings officials said: "It is hoped and requested that you observe Sunday, July 4, by giving to your congregation the strongest Thrift-Savings message of which you are capable pointing out to each and every one that it is his duty to himself to save wisely and systematically for himself; requesting that each person silently pledge to himself to save wisely and safely for himself through the remainder of the year by investing systematically in government savings securities, which are Thrift Stamps, War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates."

CROWS KILLING MANY SMALL CHICKS

Crows in Fayette county are so numerous that they have been killing the farmers small chicks in large numbers, with the result that a general slaughter of the birds is desired by the farmers.

One farmer has lost 50 pure bred chicks as result of the activities of the crows and others report correspondingly large losses.

FARMERS GIVEN WARNING ABOUT POTATO BLIGHT

That farmers and potato growers in this part of Ohio should make preparations to combat late blight of potatoes is pointed out by the Department of Botany at the Ohio Experiment Station.

Late blight generally appears in its destructive form in July. It is necessary to spray the potatoes with Bordeaux mixture every 10 days or two weeks throughout the season to prevent the blight from developing.

It has been found beneficial to do this even if the blight does not strike the potato field, as the Bordeaux keeps the plants in a healthier condition, which in turn increases the yield of potatoes.

Late blight always starts to develop during cool, damp weather. Hot dry weather retards its development. This is the statement of County Agent Karl D. Hira.

The Bordeaux mixture is made by dissolving four pounds of blue vitriol in 20 gallons of water; four pounds of quick lime is then slacked and after the milk of lime is well stirred and diluted to about 2 gallons, the two are mixed, more water being added to make a total of 50 gallons of the mixture.

FARMER THOUGHT BACK WOULD BREAK

Felt like he was being bent backward over a barrel. Liver was lazy and often became dizzy. Whole system was run down. Found relief in Dreco, the great root and herb medicine.

"It is wonderful the relief I got from taking Dreco, for I felt like my back would break when I started on my first bottle," stated Mr. George Snyder, of 1105 First St., Findlay, O. Mr. Snyder is the well-known truck farmer who has lived in this city thirty years.

"I ached all over, my liver was sluggish and whole system in a run-down, weakened condition. I think I was on the verge of a breakdown. As soon as I started taking Dreco I felt better. My bowels acted freely and my kidneys were flushed off. I began to feel sound and my appetite increased. My entire system now seems to be cleaned out, and my body is free from pain. I feel good all the time and give all the credit to Dreco. It sure is one fine medicine."

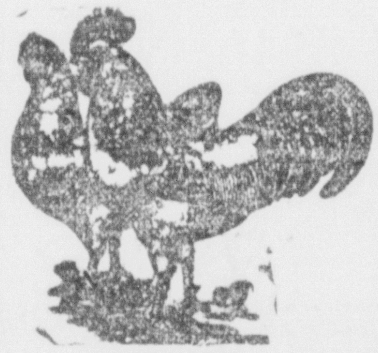

Dreco is the pure liquid extract of many roots, herbs, barks and leaves, which act on the vital organs of the human body. After taking Dreco it is noticed that the stomach is soothed and the gassy condition is eliminated; the liver becomes active, relieving headaches, that dull, tired-out feeling; nerves are quieted, which induces sound sleep; the kidneys are strengthened; appetite increased; bowels act with ease and regularity, and the whole system takes on renewed energy, vigor and vitality. Dreco is harmless, pleasant to take and the effects are quickly felt.

Dreco is now sold by all progressive druggists and is being especially introduced here by

REAL RAISIN JACK STORY IS REPORTED

Citizens of a nearby town vouch for the authenticity of a "raisin jack" story which occurred in that community recently.

There was a certain young man of the community who, feeling the pangs of Prohibition, decided to manufacture a little "home brew" for his consumption. A jar of many gallons capacity was filled with the mixture and allowed to stand the prescribed time. One afternoon when all the remainder of the family had left the house the owner of the concoction decided it was time to sample his product.

After drinking to his heart's content and to the fullness of the inner man he left the house but forgot to hide the jar in which quantities of the stuff still remained. The father appeared on the scene and feeling great depth of chagrin poured the mixture out on the ground where it was soon swallowed by a flock of chickens and one hog. In five minutes several chickens were prostrate and one old rooster was an especially dilapidated creature trying to cross the barnlot but falling on his head every few steps. It is claimed that the hog cleared a five rail fence with one leap and left for other parts of the farm.

It is not announced what became of the youth.

HIGHLAND LOSES IN POPULATION

Statistics made public by the Census Bureau show that Highland county lost 1,191 persons in the ten year period ending in 1920, while the previous ten year period she lost 2324.

Hillsboro gained 60 during the ten years, and now has a population of 4356.
